Reaching the souls of Taiwan

Dear Friends,

Thank you for praying for us. We were so encouraged by the number of emails and kind words that we received upon sending our last month's prayer letter. Since then, our belongings have been found and we are now awaiting their arrival. The shipment has been delayed until April 27th, so please continue to pray that they would arrive intact and without damage. The most valuable belongings that we shipped were teaching materials which we plan on integrating into our Bible studies with the Taiwanese people.

We were actually relieved to know that the delivery of our belongings had been delayed, however, as it has been a very eventful week. Several days ago Kelly's father was hospitalized with an intestinal disease. Kelly had been travelling to the hospital daily to visit with him and has come to the aid of her family in multiple ways. This has provided us with more opportunities to talk to her family about spiritual things. When her father comes home, he will likely need more assistance. Please pray that we would have boldness and wisdom when sharing the Bible with them. We thank The Lord for giving us this opportunity to witness, and we are very grateful for your prayers.

Last month we were also privileged to take a trip down south to visit the church that we spent our survey trip with in Kaohsiung. It was a great encouragement to see them again, and I appreciated the opportunity to preach during their evening service and show them our video presentation (which would not have been complete without them.) Their kindness has been a great blessing to us.

We would also like to praise God as my resident visa has been approved. Lord willing, I will receive it later this month by mail. After living here for over a month, I am very eager to resume language classes. Until I become more capable with Mandarin-Chinese, please pray that I would be able to reach people with the Advanced English Bible Study which I plan on introducing to our community. Please pray that Kelly's family would also be willing to study God's Word with us.

We greatly appreciate your faithful support and prayers on our behalf. Thank you, may The Lord bless you.

A servant,

Bro. Evan

Celebrating Evan's birthday with Kelly's family.
