We thank The Lord for the great and manifold blessings He's bestowed upon us this past month. He has blessed us with many wonderful meetings, and helped us to triumph over many challenges. We thank God for the additional churches that He's led to support us, and for their partnership with this ministry.

Many churches have greatly encouraged us this past month. We received a care package from one of our supporting churches. What a blessing to be reminded that many believers are praying for us daily. Thank you for keeping us in your prayers.

God has been so good to us. Even in our struggles, His Grace is always sufficient! On our way to one meeting our vehicle's head gasket cracked, I came down with the flu, and then went on about 4 hours of sleep entering the mission's conference, but how God helped me! First, I'd like to thank The Lord for helping us to make the conference safe and sound, and then for using those events to convict me, humble me, compel me to exalt His word, and minister to those lovely people. Not only did God greatly help me, but He prepared me for a very special meeting to follow.

The following week, God used us to encourage a church which had just lost their pastor, and we thank Christ for the opportunity He gave me to minister to them. It was a tremendous privilege. Thank you my Lord and my God for encouraging them, and for your willingness to use a sinner like me. We also thank God for the Salvation that He wrought in the heart of a young man who received Christ shortly following the Sunday morning service. God has assured us that He has had a purpose for us at every meeting we've had, and we're grateful for every meeting that we've had.

Our Lord is The Great Provider, The Great Sustainer, The Great Director, The Great Finder, and The Great Binder! I pray that I never forget how it's been all of Him and none of me.

In reflection of all that He's brought us through this past year, we plan to spend the majority of this summer with our sending church. There are still a number of churches that we plan to visit before leaving for the field. We pray that we will continue to partner with The Lord's churches as we continue to present this work in a way that brings honor and glory to Him. Please pray for us, for Lighthouse Baptist Church, for our Pastor Gary Webb, and that everything we do would be done in a way that pleases God.

Forever Thankful to Christ,

Bro. Evan
