Dear Faithful Friends,

Thank you for your prayers this past month, we are very grateful for the way that The Lord has helped us to teach His word to the Taiwanese people. We praise The Lord that Kelly's parents have agreed to let her share the word of God with them once a week. She has had several meetings with them already, and I would ask that you pray for her as she presents The Gospel to them. Although, her mother has not shown much interest during the meetings, her father has been quite attentive. We are grateful for The Lord's mercy, and how He has helped her father gain strength and clarity of mind to hear The Gospel. Please pray for him, that he would receive it.

Thank you for praying for our students, and for me. I have been able to reconnect with two of my previous students in the last week. I met Melody again, while at the park with Timothy, as he was able to play with her son who is one year younger than him. She was impressed by his encouragement of her son and by how well they played together. We discussed the Bible study, and why she had stopped, she has had many trials over the last two years so please pray that Kelly and I would have the opportunity to teach her once again. I also met up with Jeff again, at language school. In the last two years, he has both gotten married and had a child. He would like our families to get together, and I, of course, would like to be able to talk to him more about his relationship with The Lord. Please pray for him.

My Chinese has improved, as has my understanding of the Taiwanese, so I believe that I am more capable of developing these relationships than before. I would like to thank The Lord for giving me another opportunity to share His Gospel with students that I've thought I'd never see again. God can truly do anything.

Thank you for praying for Alex, Kevin, Michelle, Dephane, and Grace. I would ask that you especially pray for Alex and Michelle this month. They are both struggling spiritually, and I perceive that they are also ashamed of it. Please pray for me to comfort them appropriately and confront them as necessary, and that they would respond to The Lord's goodness with repentance. Lamentation 3:31-32 "For the Lord will not cast off forever: But though he cause grief, yet will he have compassion according to the multitude of his mercies." Please also pray for us, we have faced many challenges and obstacles recently, yet have also encountered more opportunities to minister. Please pray for our protection, and for our faithfulness to His word and His work.

Thank you once again for praying for Kelly, Timothy, and I. Thank you for praying for our protection, our health, and our delivery of The Lord's message to the Taiwanese.

A servant,
Bro. Evan
